[illegible] question should have been viewed in all its aspects and the point whether, when a charity fails [illegible] for which he is not responsible. It is [illegible] to withdraw the grant on the cypres doctrine must not be allowed in such cases has not been considered.

3. The failure of the objects for which the loan was originally granted [illegible] to any default attributable by the [illegible] to any neglect of the Founder or his successors. According to the terms of the Loan Settlement the [illegible] were to be repaid [illegible] for that reason [illegible] Indemnity [illegible] after the [illegible] Partition. [illegible] Colonel Bolcle, [illegible] recalcitrant [illegible] would have been [illegible] and others qualified to discharge their [illegible] should have been utilised [illegible] of ordering the resumption [illegible] villages. Even while ordering the resumption of the [illegible] Government observed that it was not [illegible] the case of such local usefulness to be [illegible] [illegible] all the attempts made [illegible] Secretary of State to induce the Department to [illegible] maintenance of the Chauffram and other [illegible] institutions, [illegible] is a clear indication of the fact that Government were [illegible] to repudiate the memory of the Founder in regard to the charities established by him -- Mr. Wedderburn has, [illegible] Jamsetji Jeejeebhoy (Founder's son) having [illegible] the [illegible] of the properties so far [illegible] the responsibility to revive the activities and restore the institutions to their original efficiency and usefulness, entirely devolves on Government. that the cancellation of the Inam tenure was a natural sequence of the order of resumption of these Inam villages and it was effected mainly for facilitating the collection of Land Revenue and administration in these villages. The resumption was sanctioned more than 34 years ago for reasons specified in Para 3 of the G.O of 18th July 1894. By ordering resumption it was not the intention of Govt. to abolish the charities altogether, as a specific declaration was made that a reasonable grant from the general revenues of the State wld be made for the restoration and maintenance of the charities, as Govt. migrai Institutions. There has been no departure from the principles laid down in that order

In the circumstances, I am to state that it is undesirable to reopen the question as recommended by the Committee that the Inams as Devadayam Inams should be restored.
